

Teacher Voice Omnibus Survey Terms and conditions

1. Questions requiring teachers to subscribe to further research cannot be included in the survey.
2. No individual teacher or school will be identified from the survey panel.
3. NFER will have final say over the wording of questions and reserve the right to refuse inclusion of questions where we feel that it may compromise NFER in some way.
4. Survey space will be made available to Clients on a first come first served basis and based on the draft questions received by the published deadline. There is a limit on survey questionnaire length. It may not always be possible to include all questions for all Clients due to this restriction.
5. NFER reserve the right to cancel the survey if insufficient question space is sold. In such instances, the Clients will be fully re-funded any monies invested in the service.
6. All questions will normally be asked of the whole teacher panel, unless simple routing is used.
7. If final agreement of question content is not met by fault of the Client then NFER will not normally be able to include the question in that round of the survey
8. NFER will not use the results of survey questions pertaining to a Client unless NFER has sought permission from that Client.
9. Clients should allow NFER the chance to comment on any materials before publicising the results of the survey. All publicity must acknowledge NFER's Teacher Voice omnibus survey and include a link to the website <http://www.nfer.ac.uk/teachervoice>.
10. NFER will not release any individual or school level datasets to clients.
11. Clients will be required to sign and return the NFER Service Contract before questions will be entered into the survey.
